

Municipal Development Officers Association

Spring Conference April 21st to April 23rd, 2010
Hampton Inn and Suites, Dartmouth Crossing

Wednesday, April 21, 2010

9:00–10:00 Evolution of Dartmouth Crossing -

*Presenters: Cathy Spencer, D.O., HRM; Kenda MacKenzie HWC;
Robert Jahncke, Parkland Planning; Joseph Driscoll, HRM Planning*

A walk through the process and challenges of developing the region's newest retail centre. Perspectives from subdivision, servicing and parkland review authorities, as well as what's in store for the future for the remainder of the site.

10:00-10:15 Break

10:15 –12:00 Evolution of Dartmouth Crossing...continued

12 - 1:30 LUNCH extra time given for members to go out for lunch and deal with lunch time "traffic".

1:30 -4:00 - Presenting a Development Appeal to the Utility and Review Board - *HRM Legal

Thursday, April 22, 2010

9:00-10:00 Dealing with Difficult People - Kathy Brown HRM Training and Development Consultant -

Tips to maximize your ability to resolve issues through discussion and to communicate in a professional manner.

10:00-10:15 Break

10:15-12:00 Dealing with Difficult People...continued

12:00-1:30 Annual General Meeting (includes lunch)

1:30-2:30 Canada Games - Representatives from the 2011 Halifax Canada Games Organization will give a short presentation on the who, what, where and when of the upcoming Games in February 2011. The presentation will include three short videos and will touch on the infrastructure under construction, the venues, some of the proposed events, and what it has taken and will take to pull this all together.

2:30-3:30 Bareland Condominium

Pat Cassidy of the law firm of Cassidy Nearing Berryman - Condominium development currently being developed in NS and future plans for development. Bare-land projects will be highlighted and compared to the subdivision model. In addition Bill 38 Amendments will be summarized.

3:30 - 3:45 Break

3:45-4:30 Urban/Rural Conflicts - King's County Perspective

Ben Sivak, Municipal Planner for the Municipality of Kings

Friday, April 23, 2010

9:00 - 11:00 Round Tables - Still Under Development- further details to follow.